

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD
4 March 1949

HOUSE

ADJOURNMENT OVER
Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, House adjourns today it adjourns to meet on Monday next.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

Mr. MARTIN of Massachusetts. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, and I am not going to object, may I inquire what the program will be for next week?

Mr. McCORMACK. On Monday the Consent Calendar will be called.
Several bills are scheduled for consideration.

Mr. Speaker, I am not going to object to the bill on Monday and Tuesday.

H. R. 2546 relates to radar protection for our country. H. R. 1741 is known as the guided missiles bill and H. R. 2663 relates to the Central Intelligence Unit.
H. R. 2216 provides an additional Under Secretary of Defense. Senate Joint Resolution 36 deals with Arab and Jewish refugees of Palestine.

I want to make one correction however.
The bill H. R. 2663, the central intelligence bill may be brought up under suspension of the rules on Monday.

Mr. MARTIN of Massachusetts.
Might we inquire of the Speaker, if there are any other suspensions that he has in mind at this time.

The SPEAKER. No.

Mr. MARTIN of Massachusetts. The bill to which the distinguished majority leader referred is the so-called hush-hush bill?

Mr. McCORMACK. That is the bill where the committee had to receive testimony in executive session on a certain part of the bill but not the entire bill.
That was on a good proportion of the bill and insofar as that has relationship to hush-hush the answer is "Yes."

On Wednesday the Labor and Federal Security appropriation bill will be taken up.

Thursday and Friday I am leaving open. It all depends on whether the rent control bill comes out of the committee, which I expect. Then there is the wage-hour bill, that is the minimum-wage bill, and the amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act. If either one of them are reported out, it is my intention to bring one of them up and if possible, both of them on Thursday or Friday, but I doubt if both can be brought up on those days. But I would like to have that flexible reservation so that the House and every Member will feel that I am keeping faith with them.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

Under clause 2 of rule XIII, reports of established pursuant to section 102, National Administration of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Committee on Rules: Approved rules for House consideration of the following—
